Q. 4. Answer the following question. (Any Seven)

(14 Marks)

1. How did Ramana confirm that the Begun Liochichla is new to science?

Ans: Ramana took feathers and photographs and recorded the bird's song. Detailed comparisons of different Species revealed key differences in their calls and markings. This confirmed that Begun Liocichla is new to science.

2. The Raja feels that he is a just Raja? Do you agree with this?

Ans:- No, He should not store and keep all the grain in his royal storehouse while the people of his country go hungry. He should distribute them to the needy and keep only as much as required for him. After all, the grains that Raja stored belonged to the people and those grains were the fruits of their labour.

3. List down three laughter techniques?

Ans:- The three laughter techniques are;

- a. Think of events, places, things and people that make you laugh.
b. Keep your eyes and ears open for things that can inspire laughter.
c. Learn to laugh at yourself by narrating a funny or embarrassing story about yourself.

4. How did the hunters advise the author to carry a gun? Do you think the author should have carried a Gun?

Ans:- The hunters knew that there was a leopard in the forest and they thought it would attack anyone moving around in the forest area without gun.

A gun wasn't necessary for the author as the leopard knew him. The leopard ignored the author in the friendliest way when he came across him in the forest. The leopard never attacked the author even if he came very close to the quiet visitor but seemed to ignore his presence.

5. When does the poet want us to laugh?

Ans:- The poet wants us to laugh only once we have hidden thoughts of failure, locked our troubles, worries, hearts aches securely in a strong box. This strong box is nothing but the strong mind we have created to understand and then accordingly cope with our worries on our own.

6. Why do you think the author tells to the hunters that he had not seen the leopard?

Ans:- The author loved the leopard as it was harmless towards him. The leopard ignored him the friendliest way when he saw him walking alone in the forest and did not attack him with a weapon either. The author felt that the leopard trusted him. He told the hunters that he had not seen the leopard because he didn't want the hunters to kill the animal with which he had built trust.

7. How did the author know that 'the hunt is still on'?

Ans:- The author knew that the hunt was on as he heard the quickening cry of a barking deer

8. What is the difference between endangered and extinct?

Ans:- Endangered are some species of animals the population of which is drastically decreasing. If they are not protected, those species of animals might completely disappear from the earth. However, extinct are those species that have already disappeared and do not exist in this world.

9. Why was the mother of teenage daughter growing more and more impatient?

Ans:- The mother of the teenage daughters grew more and more impatient with the girls inability to control their laughter. She probably thought that they drew unnecessary attention from people sitting around in the restaurant as they giggled and laughed loudly.

Q. 6. Write a letter to your sister who lives in Rajasthan and tell her about the annual function at your school. (03 Marks)

55, Scamac Street
Lakshmibai Road,
Meetut.
17 October 2018

Dear Sister,

I hope you are all well. I guess you must be very busy in your college. When will your examination begin? Do let me know. You will be happy to know that I was given the 'Best All Rounder Award' at the school annual function held yesterday.

The function was attended by a large number of parents and other guests. All the students participated enthusiastically and presented a grand extravaganza. What a show it was! The choir sang a medley of songs and our class presented the play 'The Women in Black'. The play was a big hit. I played the role of the doctor in the play.

Initially, I was a bit nervous but soon I was as confident as ever. There were a few folk dances also. The best part of the programme was the prize giving ceremony.

You can imagine my excitement when my name was announced as the best all rounder and the Principal gave me a certificate along with a trophy. Amidst loud clapping from the audience, I received the prize and smiled at mummy and daddy who were sitting right in front.

I only wished you had been there to share my happiness. Anyway, you have to give me a treat when you come home next time. Take care of yourself and do reply soon.

Yours affectionately,

Sunaina
